Congratulations Vladimír Gorej!

We are pleased to present you with your 2022 GitHub Stars award!

Thank you for the tremendous work that you do in the community by inspiring, educating and influencing all those around you. You are a true star in our eyes, which is why we wanted to say 'Thank you' and recognize you as part of a select band of volunteer GitHub Stars from across the world. Together we are supporting communities where more than 60 million people learn, share, and work together to build software. We're helping make a welcome and inclusive home for all developers and helping others to join us as the next generation.

So thank you for your passion, your love for sharing your knowledge, for your support of open source communities, the amazing things that you've done, and the exciting things to follow!

Again, congratulations on your GitHub Stars Award!

Nova 2022

We're excited to see you at the annual GitHub Stars Nova 2022 event! An exclusive 2-day event for GitHub Stars - bringing you and the GitHub product teams closer together, be connected and celebrate the tremendous things that you do in the open source community.

As a 'Thank-you', please enjoy the goodies in this 'travel-themed' box, to help you look, sound and feel great with all the awesome work that you do with the community, now that things are starting to open back up!

Thank you once again for your passion, your love for sharing your knowledge, for your support of open source communities, the amazing things that you've done, and the exciting things to follow!

Look forward to talking with you on Oct 3rd 2022!
